

Public Transport in Switzerland.

Key figures*

17,740 miles

length of the public transportation network.

6.6 Million people transported every day (Swiss population: 8.6 millions).

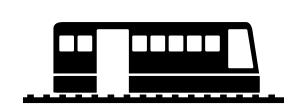

62,300

people employed by public transportation companies*.

89.5%

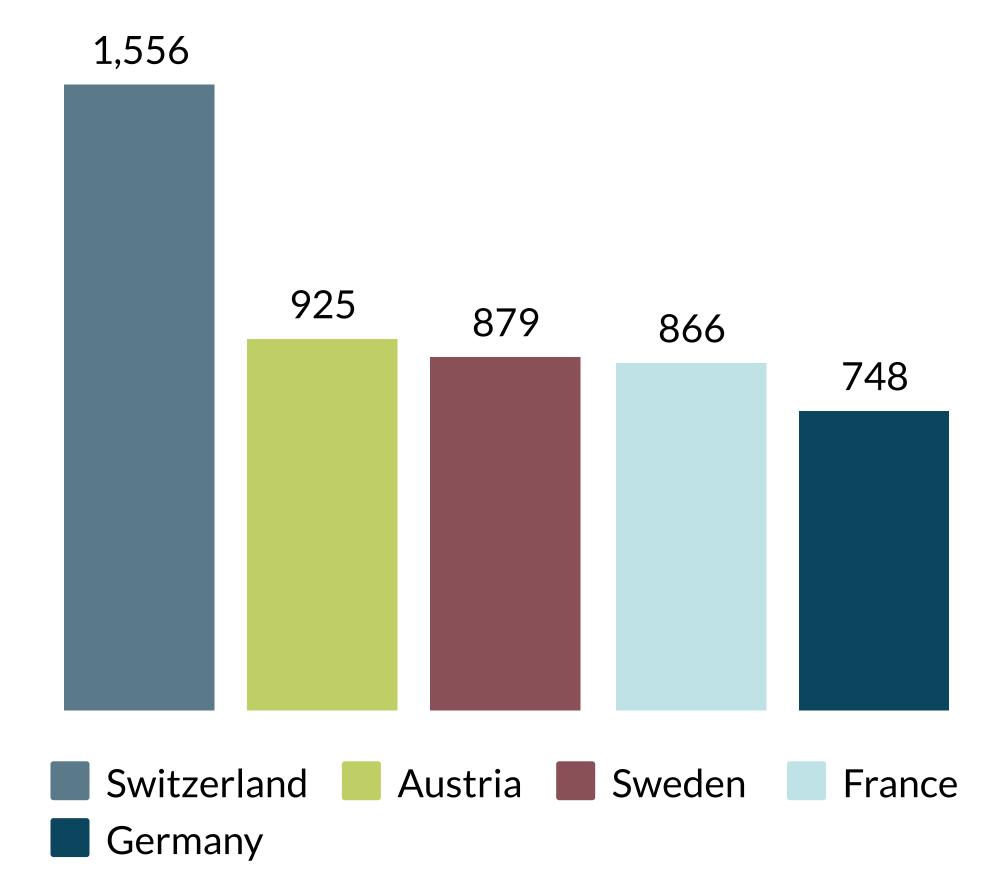

of all rail passengers on the Swiss Federal Railways network reached their connecting train or destination on time or less than three minutes late in 2020.

31.7%

almost one third of all tourists visiting Switzerland travel exclusively by train.

Number of rail miles traveled per resident per year*

Sources: * Swiss Public Transport Union, 2018/21, Litra 2018/19 / Direct and indirect jobs  Tourism Monitor Switzerland 2017

A few records

35

250

Mio.

28%

world's longest railway tunnel: Gotthard base tunnel.

on its 10th anniversary

Lausanne, had already

Europe's steepest bus

Kiental-Griesalp with a maximum incline of

route (PostBus):

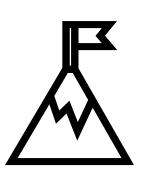

(2018), Switzerland's

sole fully automated transported 250 Mio.

passengers.

tram line, the M2 in

Europe's highest train station: Jungfraujoch - Top of Europe

150 years

Europe's oldest mountain railway: Vitznau-Rigi Train (built in 1871).

110%

Europe's steepest funicular with a maximum incline of 110%: Stoos.

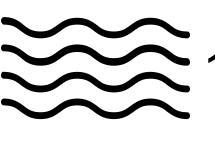

1st

cable car with an open deck: Cabrio Bahn Stanserhorn (inaugurated in 2012).

About sustainability*

A train ride produces 27 times less CO2 than a comparable car drive.

The Raethian Railways operates 100% with hydroelectricity.

Railway traffic only contributes to 0.2% 0.2% of the total of traffic CO2 emissions.

Sources: * Swiss Public Transport Union, 2018/21, Litra 2018/19

Tourists who most frequently travel by train in Switzerland*

28%.

- Korea (74.9%)
- Greater China (71.9%)
- Japan (68.2%)
- Southeast Asia (66.3%)
- India (63.4%)
- USA (62.1%)
- Canada (60.4%)
- Australia / NZ (57.6%)
- United Kingdom (54.3%)
- 10. Brazil (53.9%)
- * According to their country of origin. Source: Tourism Monitor Switzerland 2017.

The premium panoramic trains

Bernina Express

Glacier Express

GoldenPass Panoramic

Gotthard Panorama Express

Luzern-Interlaken Express

Did you know?

250 transport companies are partners of the Swiss Travel Pass

In Switzerland, 1,181 feet is the average walking distance to the next public transport station/stop.

The conception phase of the Swiss Railways' timetable begins 20 years before its implementation.