A variety of highlights.

Impressive train rides past glaciers and lakes, merging with the top sights and landmarks of Switzerland. The journey, rich in variety, leads through bustling cities, to charming mountain resorts, and clear across all four language regions. Mountain excursions are just as perfect in combination with the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland as visits to museums and castles.

Experiencing public transport.

It's not only impressive train rides that enchant guests on the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland. Apart from the five premium panoramic trains (Glacier Express, Bernina Express, Gotthard Panorama Express, Luzern-Interlaken Express and GoldenPass MOB Panoramic), the tour also includes a cruise across Lake Lucerne and a fantastic bus ride from the Alps to the Mediterranean Ticino.

Cities & Alpine resorts.

Shopping in Zurich in the morning – little later enjoying the view of the Alpine panorama near Interlaken; A glass of wine at the “Swiss Riviera” of Montreux – then a mountain fondue at Zermatt in the evening. Thanks to the routing across three mountain passes and through numerous valleys, the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland is perfect for combining bustling cities with scenic mountain regions.

UNESCO World Heritage sites & top places of interest.

Switzerland is proud home to no fewer than an astounding twelve UNESCO World Heritage sites, eight of which are located along the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland. Among these are the terraced vineyards of the Lavaux, the Albula/Bernina Line of Rhaetian Railways, the castles of Bellinzona and the Abbey District of St. Gallen. Along the route, many other top sights and landmarks such as the Chapel Bridge in Lucerne, the Rhine Falls near Schaffhausen and the Matterhorn at Zermatt wait to be admired.

Museums & castles.

Rainy days don't have to be dull! They are perfect for visiting one of the many Swiss museums or castles. Along the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland, travellers may visit the FIFA museum in Zurich, Chillon Castle near Montreux or the Zermatlantis Matterhorn Museum in Zermatt, as well as many more – all without paying extra entrance fees when holding a Swiss Travel Pass.

Mountain excursions.

A journey through Switzerland without a mountain excursion? Unthinkable! A great number of mountain excursions can be comfortably combined with the Grand Train Tour of Switzerland. Whether on Europe's oldest cog railway up to Rigi, on the Gornergrat Railways with a perfect view of the Matterhorn or on a 125-year-old steam railway onto the Brienz Rothorn: Most mountain railways offer a 50% discount to Swiss Travel Pass holders.
